Resort Facilities:

Happy Bungalows is situated just off the main road that goes between Mae Haad and Sairee village. They are located in Mae Haad just opposite the Thai Buddhist temple Wat Koh Tao. They are a very nice couple with a pleasant manor who own these bungalows and they have a fairly good knowledge of English.

The bungalows are side by side going up the hill and have a good view of the sunset; they are large, clean bungalows and good size beds and bathrooms. Unfortunately they do not have restaurant, but don't be put off by this, as the bungalows are only 2 minutes away from the beach and the village of Mae Haad where they serve everything from traditional Thai food to western food like pizzas, pastas and pastries or even Indian food.
