Buddha View Diving is a PADI 5 Star Gold Palm IDC resort; they are located in the beautiful Chalok Baan Kao beach to the south of Koh Tao. They are a well established dive school with many years diving experience around Koh Tao, Koh Phangan and Ang Thong National Marine Park. Their instructors are trained to the highest level and they originate from all over the world, so you can do your course and training in your own native tongue, this also includes the course materials and the books you will use during your training.

They are a well organized dive resort, with some excellent training rooms and facilities, they have a service engineer on site to maintain and look after all their equipment. They have top quality diving equipment and some well equipped boats. They offer all courses from the basic Discover Scuba Diving, to the Master Diver and IDC training courses; they can also sort out some nice accommodation to make your stay even more enjoyable. The resort has a dive shop, Internet access Wi-Fi and computers for you to use, a restaurant with some very tasty food, and a travel agency to help you get to your next destination after Koh Tao.

They have three levels of accommodation, from basic fan rooms; to mid range air-con rooms, and some very nice luxury accommodation, besides using their own accommodation they also use some of the other resorts in the area for accommodation as well. The resorts they use are all vetted and checked regularly Buddha View staff to ensure you stay is safe, enjoyable and memorable stay on Koh Tao.

If you can let us know what course and type of accommodation you are looking for, I will check with the resort and e-mail you back.

You can only book this resort if you are doing a dive course or fun dives with Buddha View Diving.
